

Install the tutorial of
(Barrowch Icicle series composite modularization waterway plate case
(Limited edition))

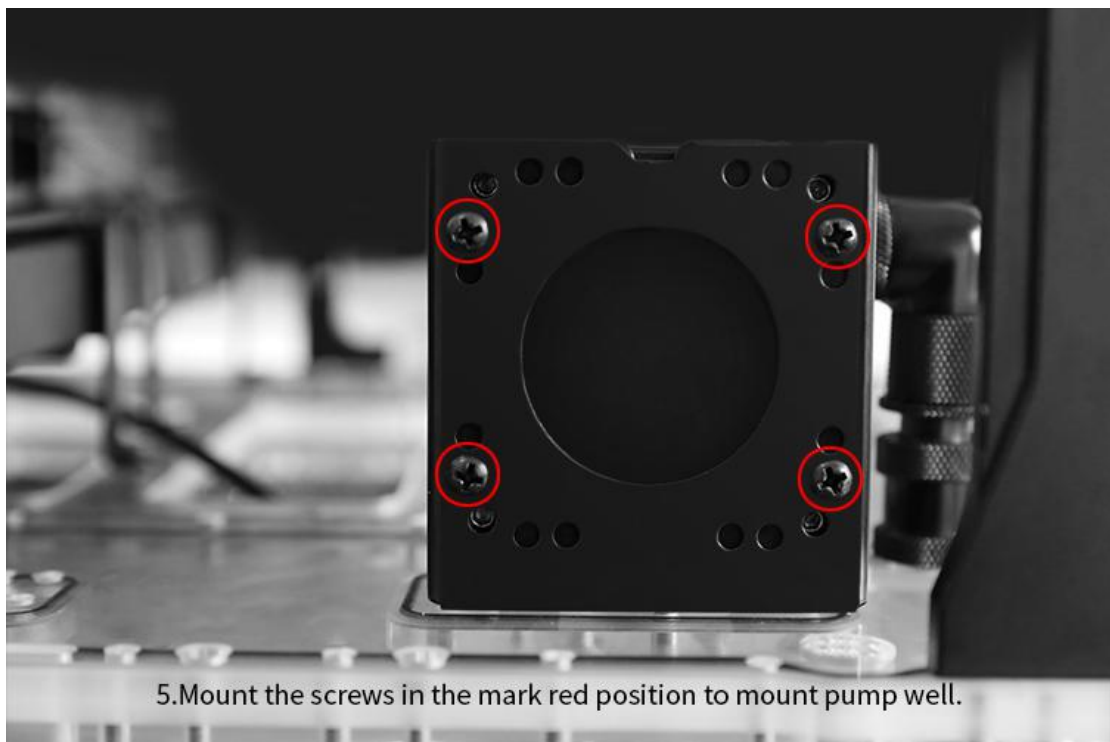

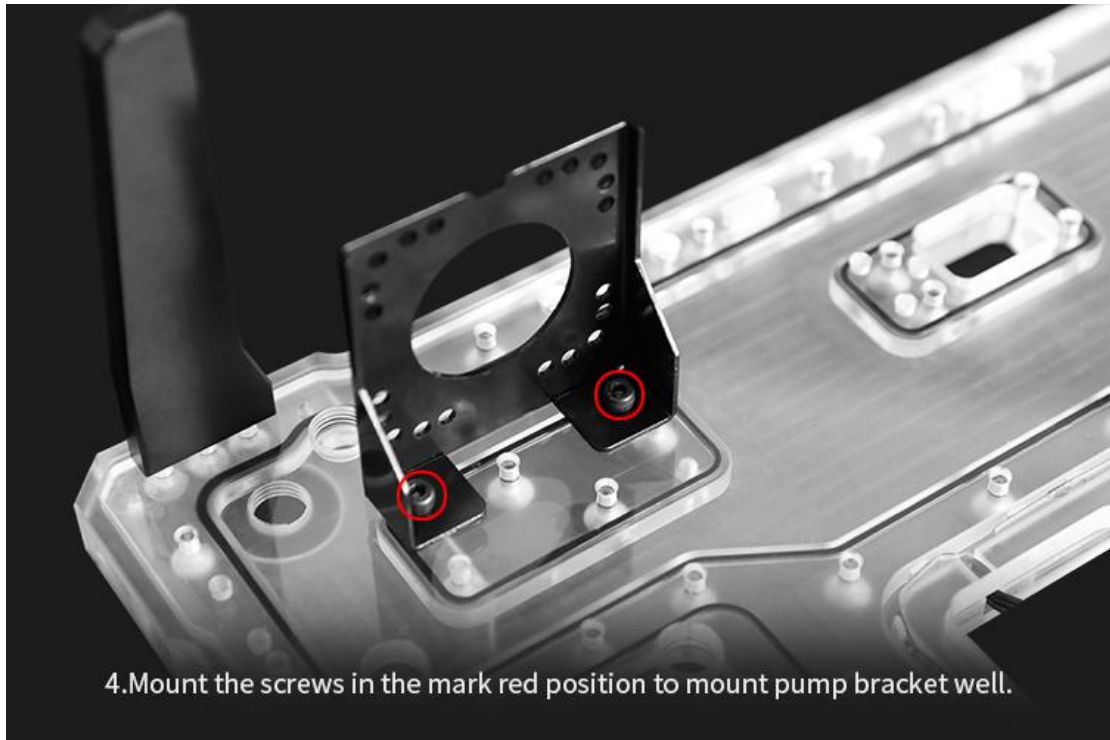

安装教程

Install tutorial

1. Please install the lower case support and the other side power support with screws at the red position in the installation drawing.

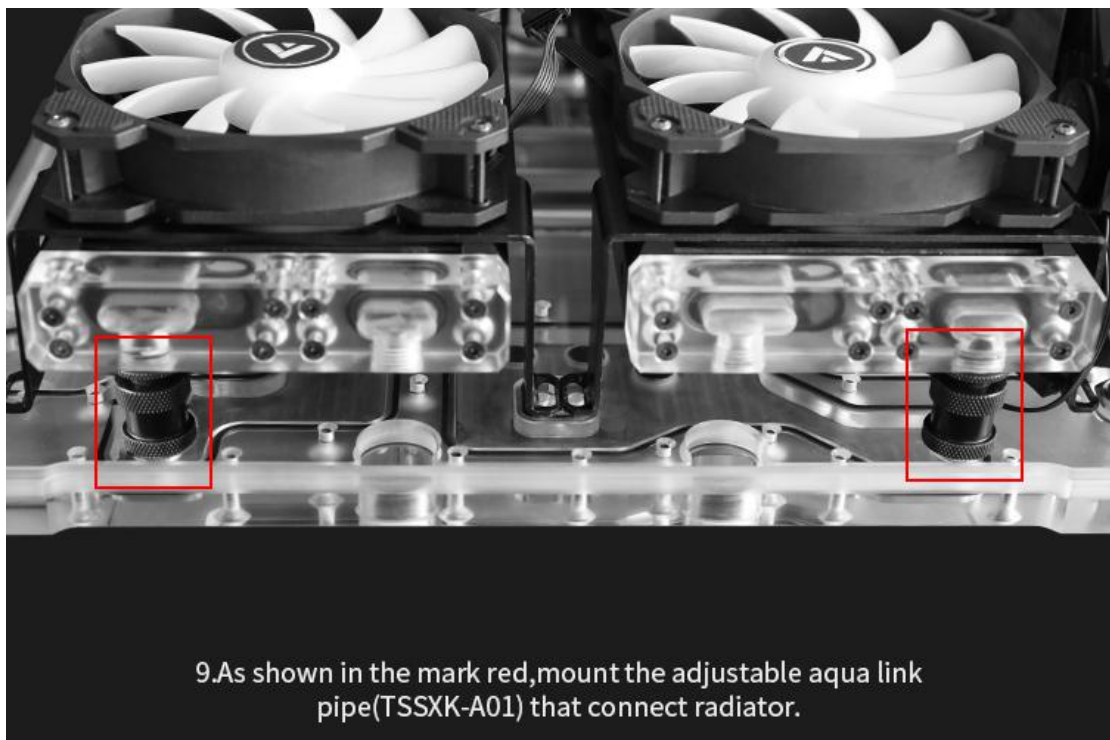

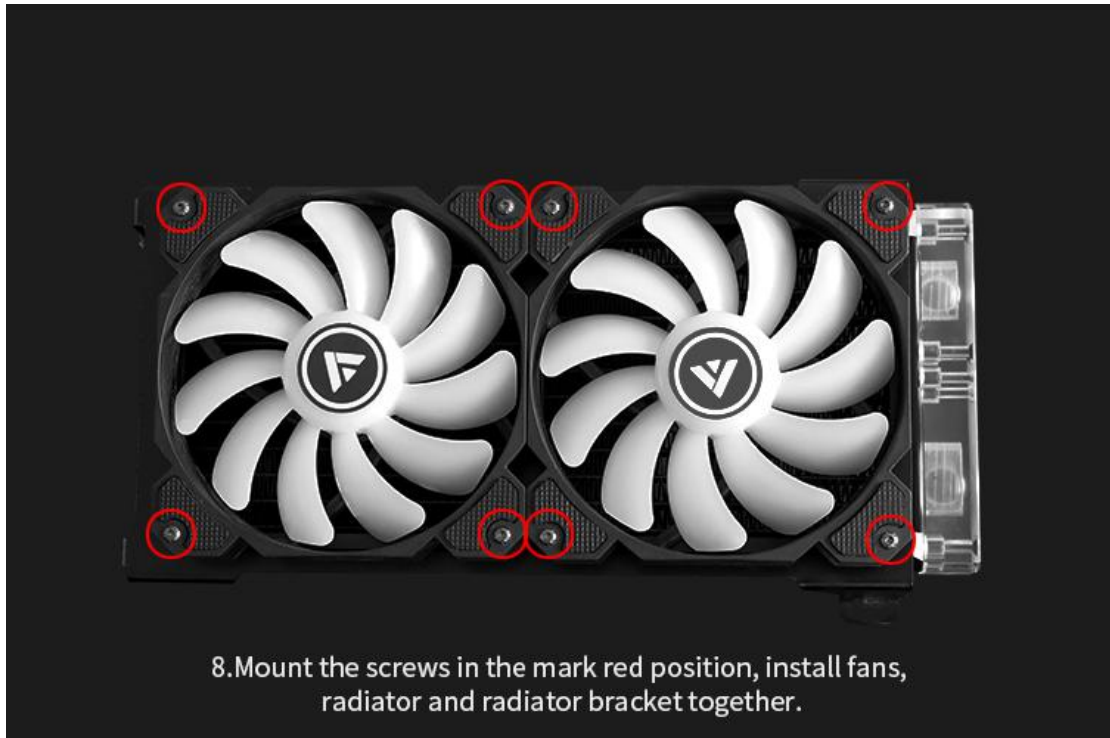

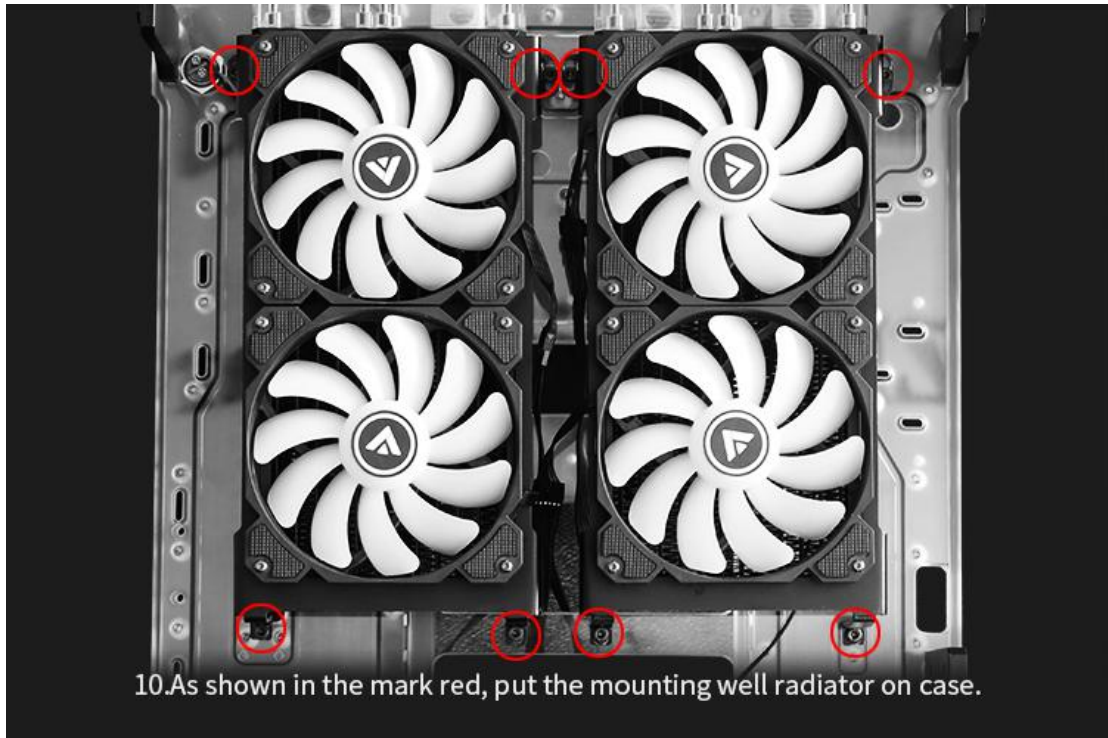

6.As shown, Install the connector of connecting pump well.

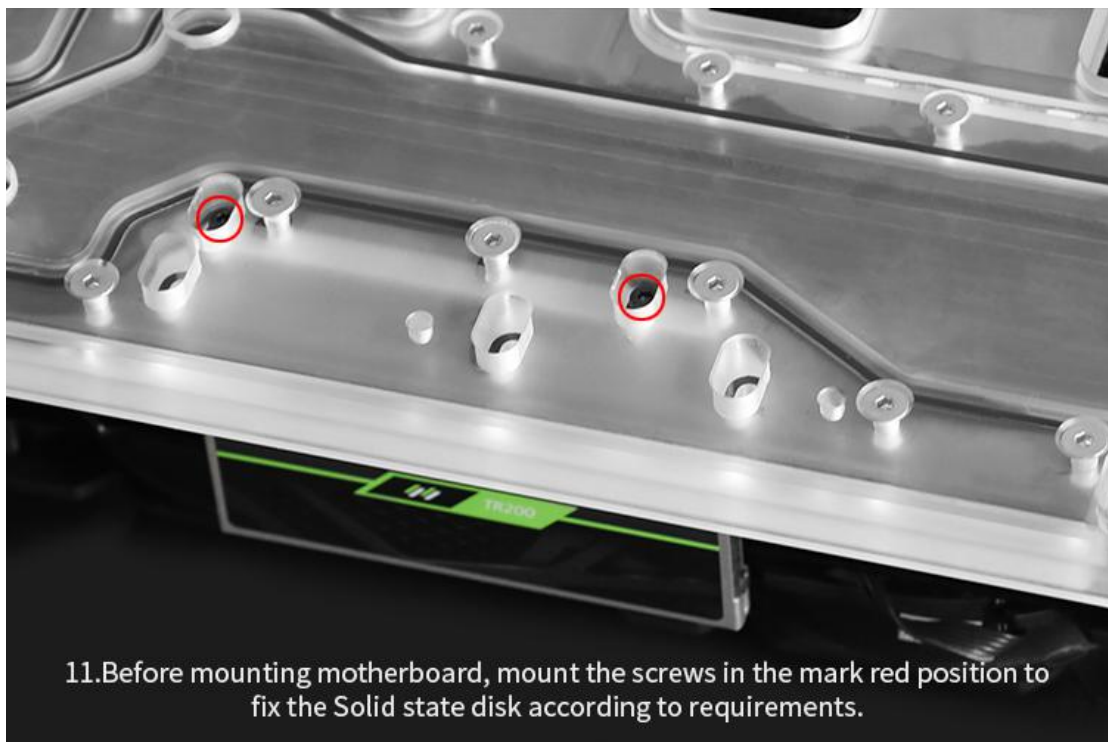

7.After installing pump, put the check valve (TTLPFG).

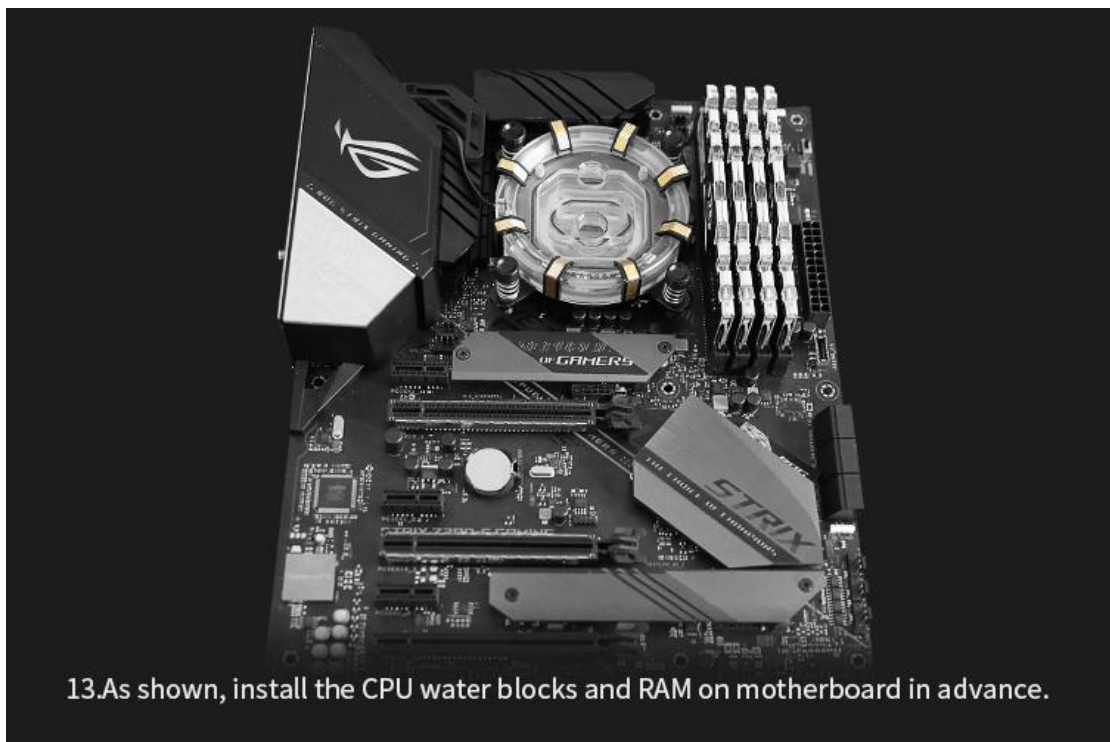

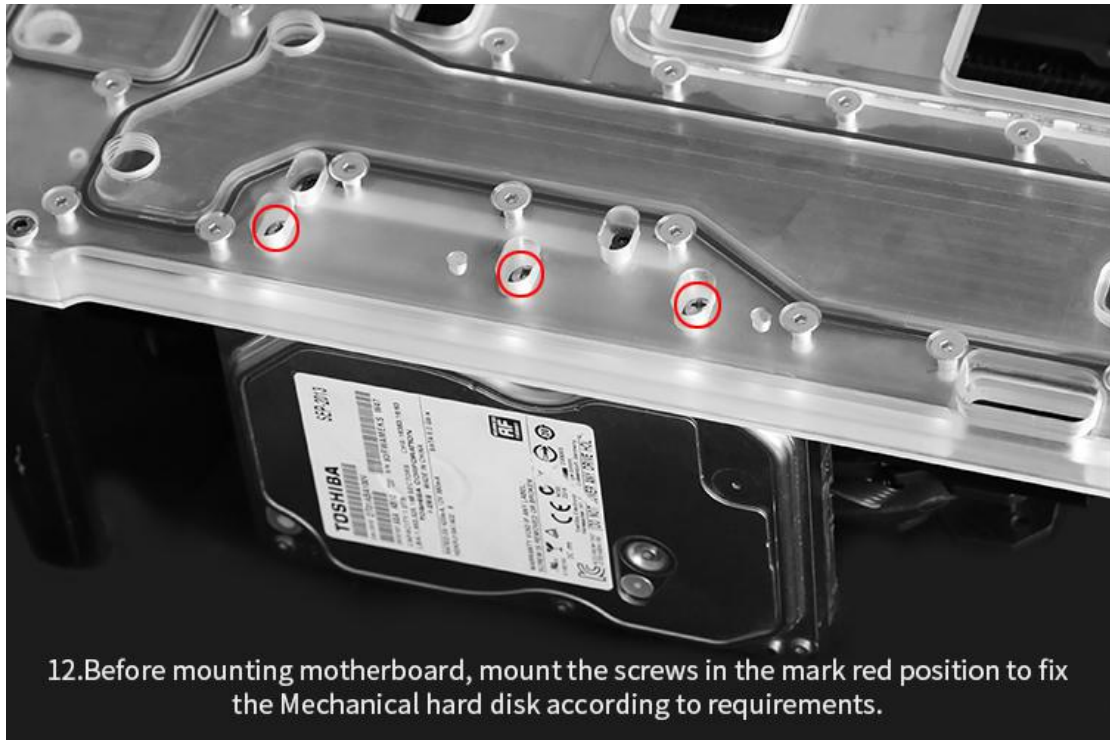

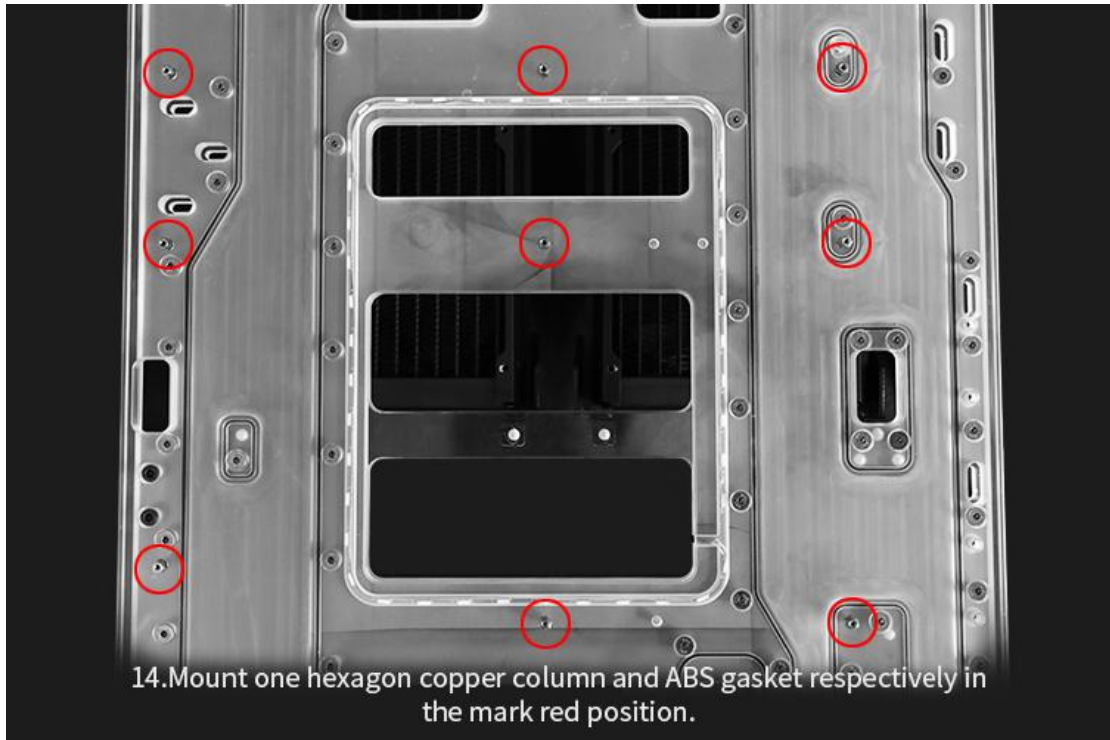

10.As shown in the mark red, put the mounting well radiator on case.

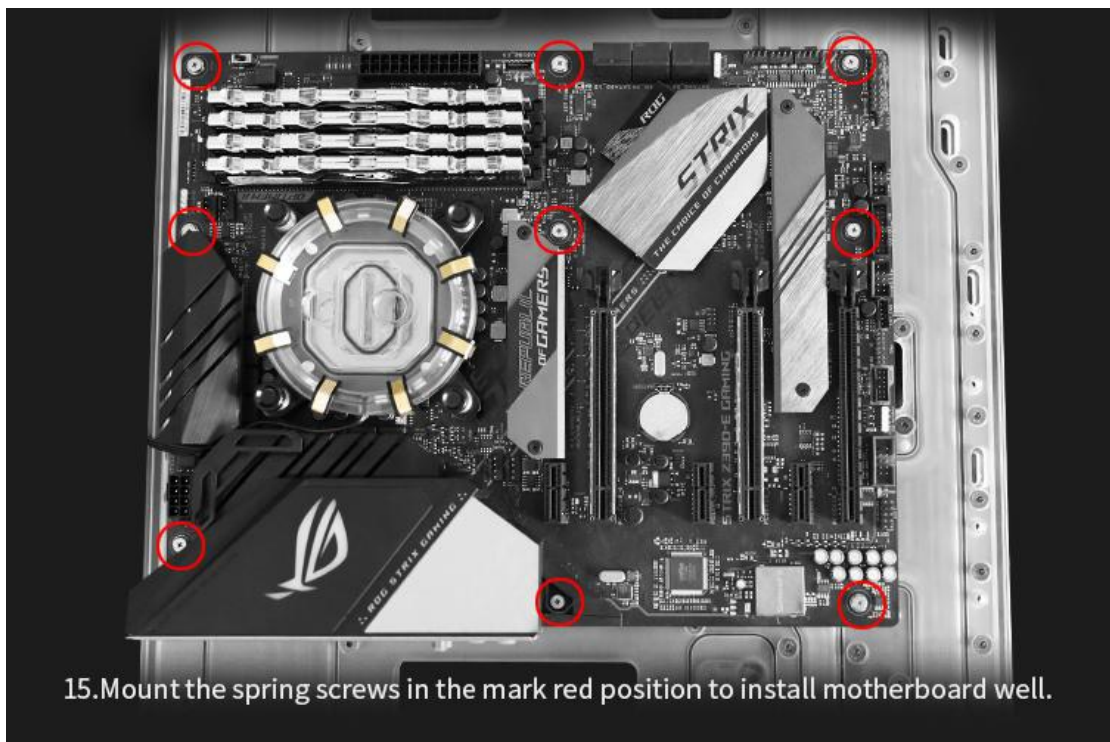

11.Before mounting motherboard, mount the screws in the mark red position to fix the Solid state disk according to requirements.

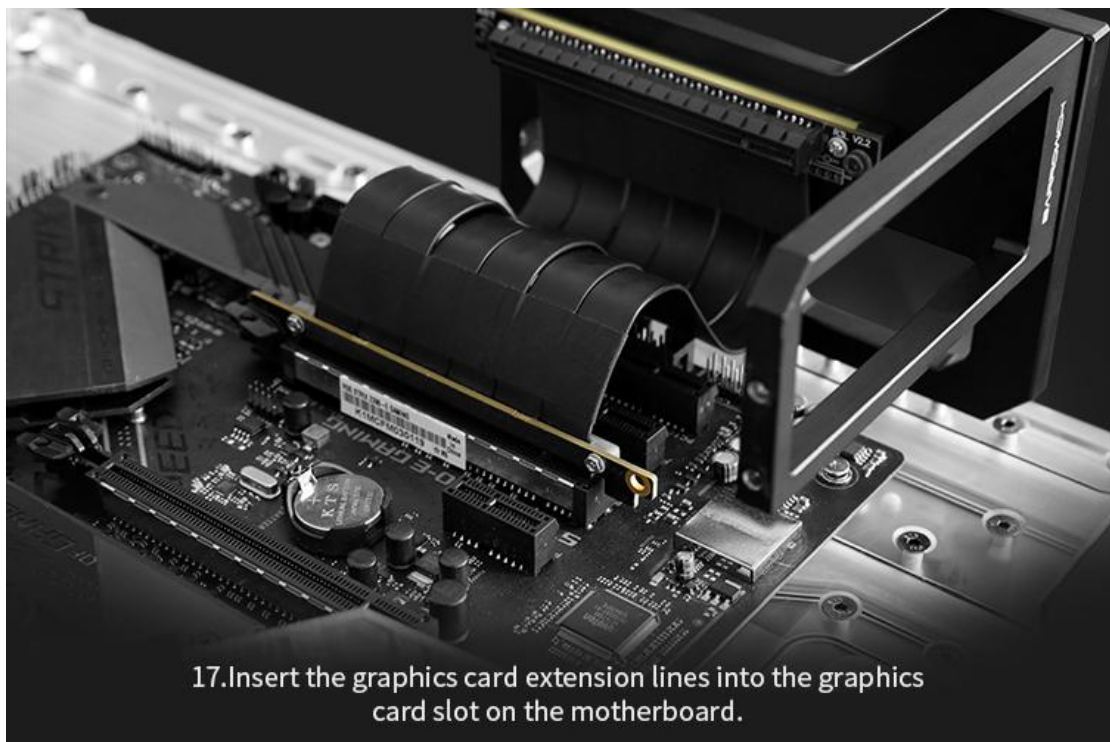

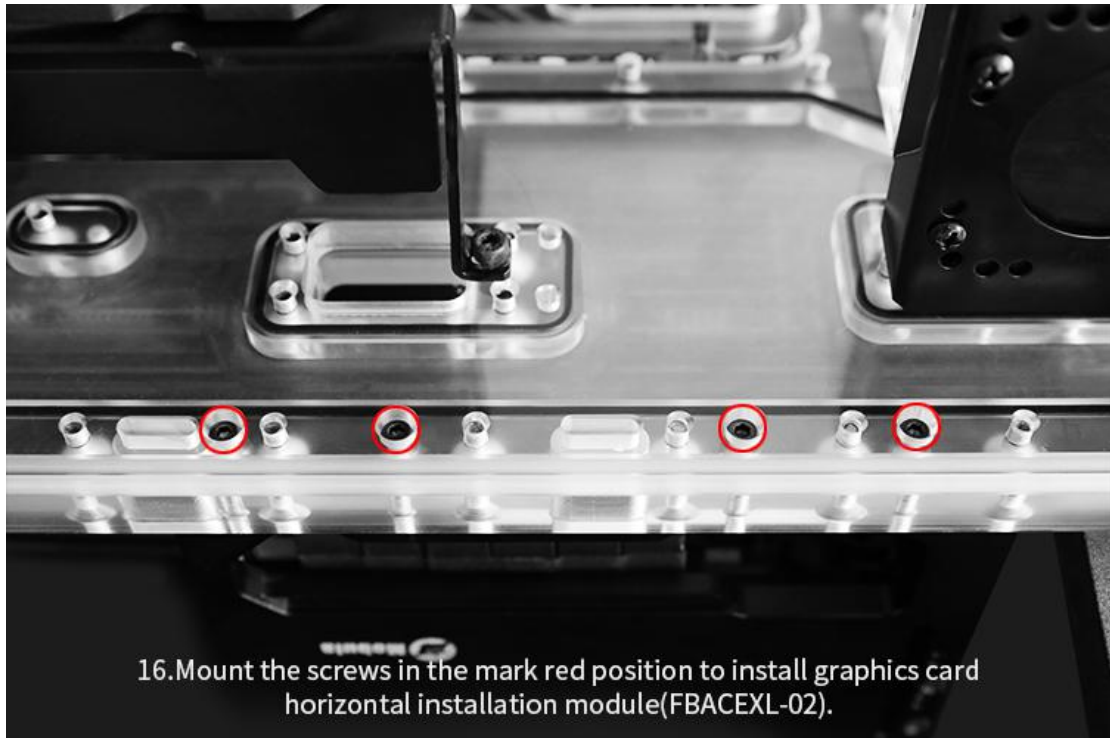

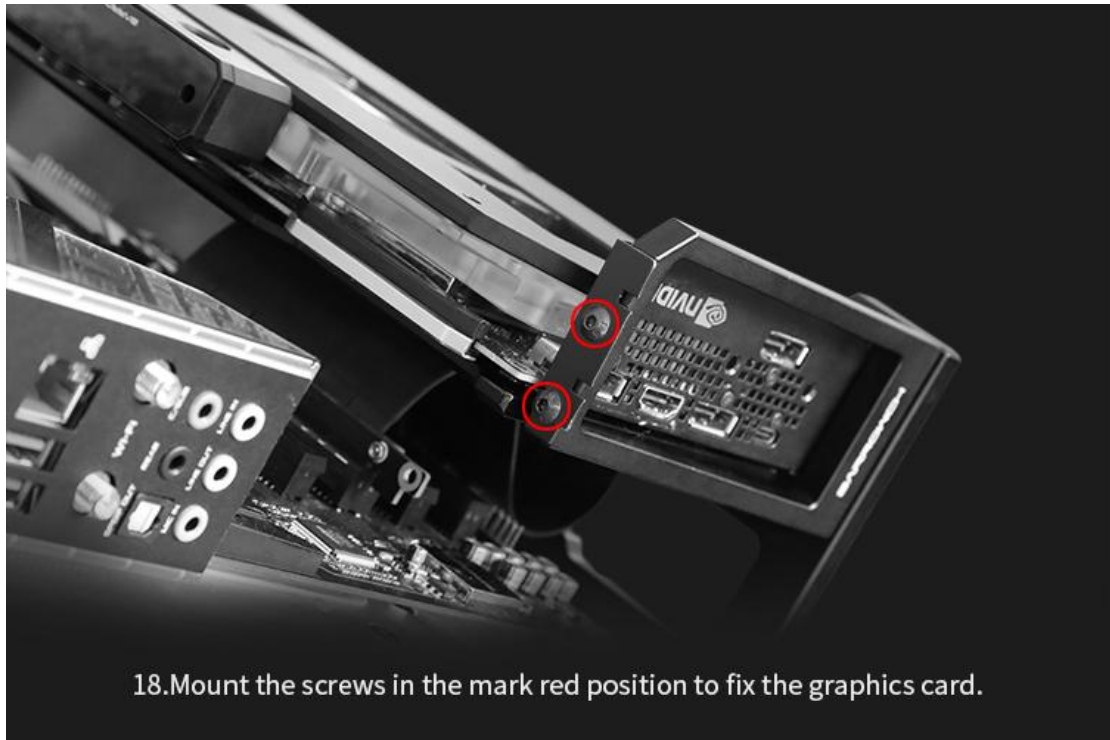

14. Mount one hexagon copper column and ABS gasket respectively in the mark red position.

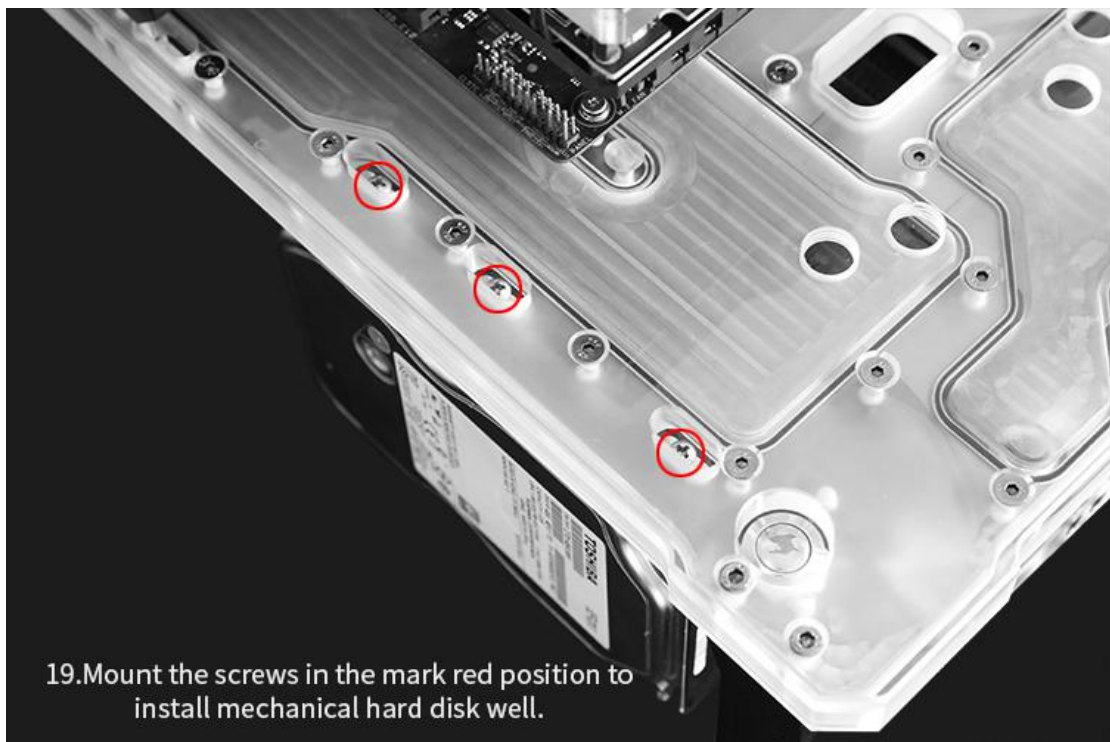

15. Mount the spring screws in the mark red position to install motherboard well.

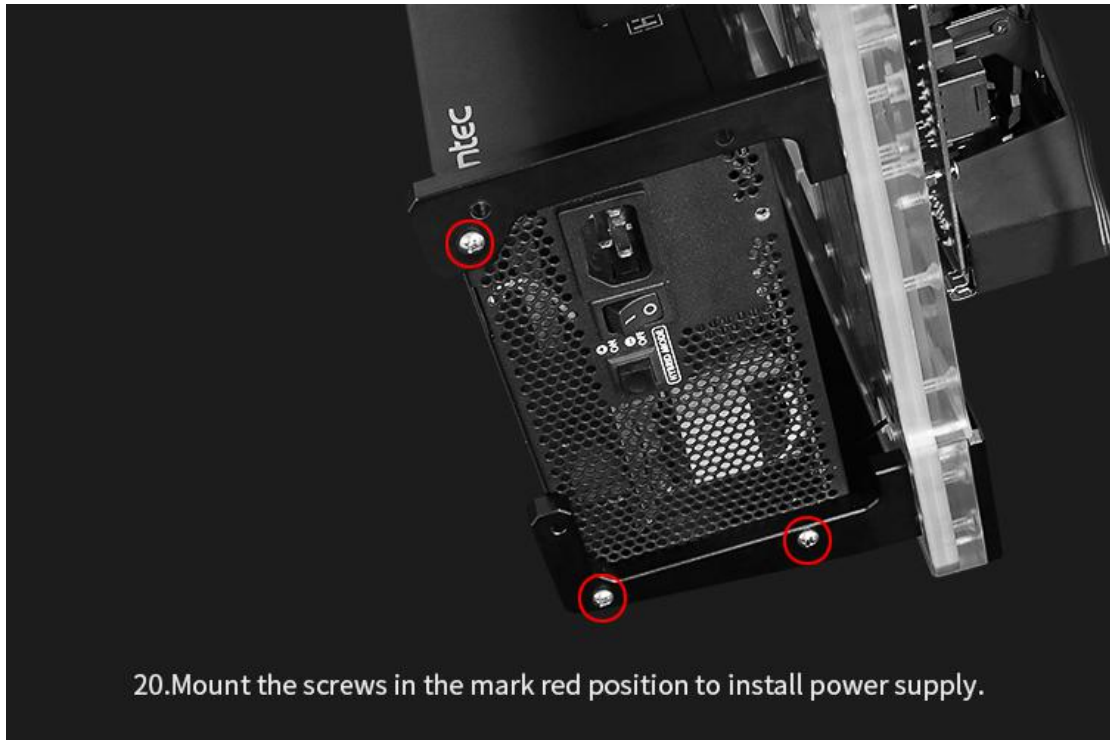

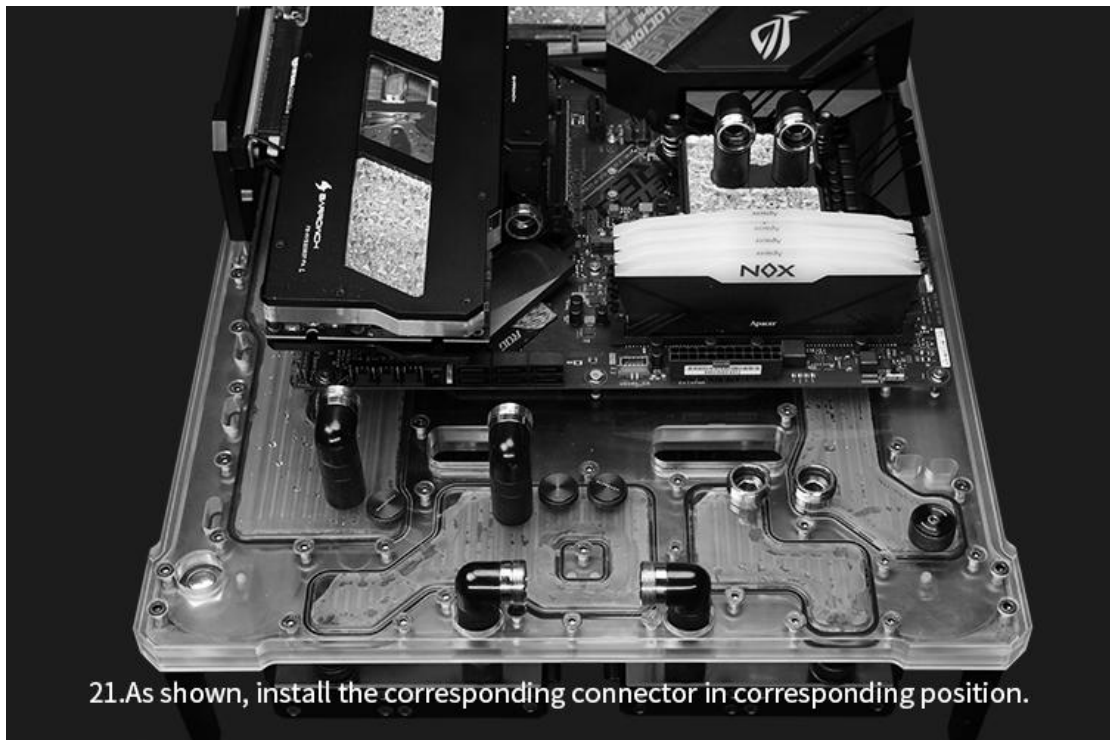

18. Mount the screws in the mark red position to fix the graphics card.

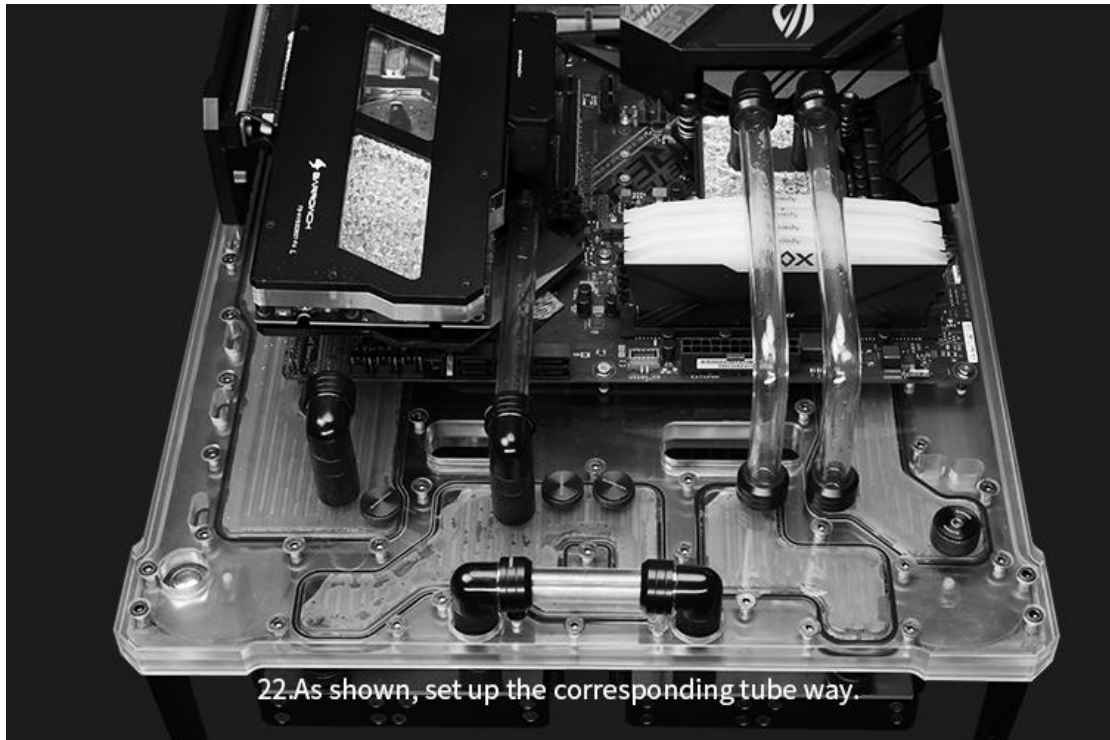

19. Mount the screws in the mark red position to install mechanical hard disk well.

20. Mount the screws in the mark red position to install power supply.

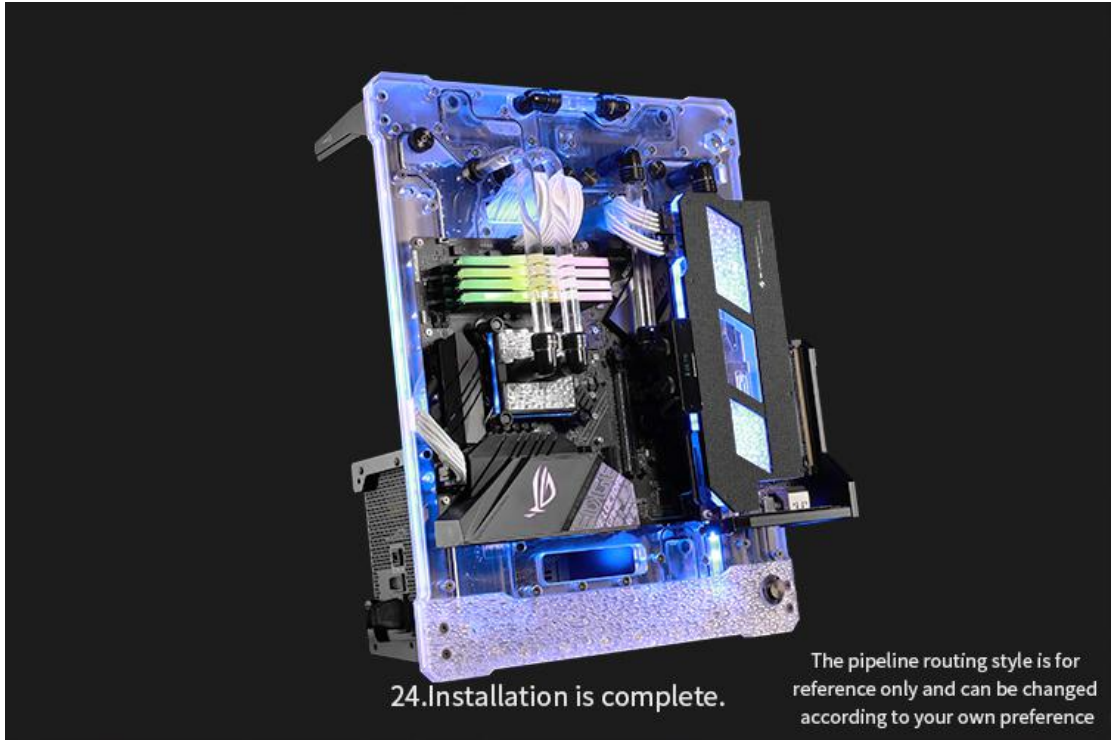

21. As shown, install the corresponding connector in corresponding position.

22.As shown, set up the corresponding tube way.

23.Mount the screws in the mark red position to install the part in teasing lines.

24.Installation is complete.

The pipeline routing style is for reference only and can be changed according to your own preference